

HUMANITIES

The aim of the Humanities course is to;

- ❖ engage in current affairs empowered by historical, geographical or cultural awareness
- ❖ understand the world in which we live
- ❖ understand and analyze a variety of sources and data
- ❖ construct clear arguments based on historical, geographical or other data
- ❖ have an awareness of, and respect for, difference in other cultures

The key subjects are;

Geography

- Structure of the Earth
- Water cycle
- Population Key words
- Settlement Characteristics
- Weather and Climate
- Development and disparity

History

- Romans vs Greeks
- Roman Empire
- Anglo Saxon Context
- The transatlantic slave trade
- Abolitionists in Britain
- The Treaty of Versailles
- The Holocaust and genocides around the world

Religious Studies

The aim of Religious studies is to;

- ❖ Describe and Understand Religion
- ❖ Compare and contrast religion
- ❖ Understand the impact of Religion on communities/societies

The course content includes;

- Animals – animal testing, hunting and vegetarianism
- Early Life – abortion, Christian views and pressure groups
- War and Peace- just wars, pacifism, Christian views
- Elderly and death
- Drug abuse
- Crime and punishment